A day in the life of a psychic reader

By Adele, PIN: 3622

Starting the day

A typical day begins for Adele when she wakes up, usually an hour or two before starting work online. When awake, she starts the day by checking her energy, ensuring that everything's fine and her energy is clear. Before the first calls come in, she does her morning prayers. She meditates - breathing and bathing in positivity, focusing on the physical, doing a quick grounding exercise and a chakra visualisation. Then Adele always connects to her intuition in her studio in her garden. She listens to the birds and enjoys the morning sun with a cup of herbal tea before taking the first calls of the day. Adele plays some relaxing music, burns sage and lights a candle to say a morning calling. Once those calls start coming in, she ensures her tools are ready; crystals, Tarot cards, I Ching, Pendulum, coloured pens and pencils - all of the tools that assist her to read, scry, and interpret what she sees. Adele explains that the beautiful thing about this is that it's energetic, so she doesn't always need to touch the person she's reading for; she quickly senses and reads the energy that radiates from others and senses the incoming energy from the universe in reaction/response.

A reading

During the reading, Adele slows down and stills her mind. She is making the conditions perfect for her intuition to speak to the client. When relaxed into the moment, Adele senses and feels the client's energy pulse and receives a lot of information. Then she listens to what the person's body and mind are trying to tell her at that given moment and also receives messages, signs, images and visions from her spirit guide, the client's guides and angels to see what's happening in their sphere. She may feel sudden waves of emotion, and energy temperatures, associated with the present.

Adele's abilities

Adele feels very grateful for her psychic abilities, and no two days are ever the same in her line of work. Adele has innate intuition, experience, understanding and insight into the healing arts and sacred craft and has studied to a high degree to offer better support for her clients when they need guidance.

A psychic's work to Adele is not a science; it is an 'art' - and a result may happen in an hour, a day, a year or a decade. Whether working with a client face to face or over the telephone, she is here to listen, understand, guide, intuit, and ultimately assist her clients see more deeply and with greater clarity so they can focus on the best way forward for them.

Much of what she sees in the Akashic records is 'written' fated or destined - but much is about choice and free will - and alternative parallel journeys and outcomes, where one significant choice made will see the client change things in their life journey so to speak. Part of what Adele does is to ensure that the client makes an informed choice - recognising what the outcomes of each decision are likely to be.

The messages or vital pieces of information that Adele receives about something or someone may not always be great, but she will always do her best to convey it most kindly and lovingly as possible. Adele's duty as a psychic reader is to share the information that she gets. Sometimes, what may seem nonsensical to her may give another person the perfect validation they are looking for and need.

Over the years, Adele has developed a relationship with every one of her clients. Her connection with her clients has become much more like a soul friendship.

Winding down

As the day winds down, Adele stops and follows the ordinary rhythm of any working person's rise and set. After work, she undergoes a clearing process to disconnect, tuning into her energy again, making sure she is energetically disconnected from her client's energy and sends back what's not hers. But just because her readings are complete for the day, it doesn't mean she is still not picking up on things; she has just learnt ways to close when her working day is over.

Adele has a full life, and her life has many different dimensions, including family, friends, work, leisure, spirituality and much more. Adele makes sure to go to bed at a decent hour; she finds self-care essential for her to receive and relay psychic messages. She has learnt to live in a state of unconditional love and be grateful; that is a part of her sacred story.

In terms of philosophy for living, Adele thinks the main thing is never to forget how to laugh and smile, never forget the ones we love and never forget we are never really alone - unless we want to be. She believes that 'what doesn't kill us makes us stronger.'

As human beings, Adele feels we need to have times when we can come together to enjoy each other's company. We can live together in harmony; however impossible this may sometimes seem. By being at one with the natural world, the earth, and all of its countries, peoples, and natural beauty, by paying homage to the sun and moon by centring our lives around spirit and the goddess, we can work together in community. We are part of a fantastic journey and adventure - something that we all share and have in common.

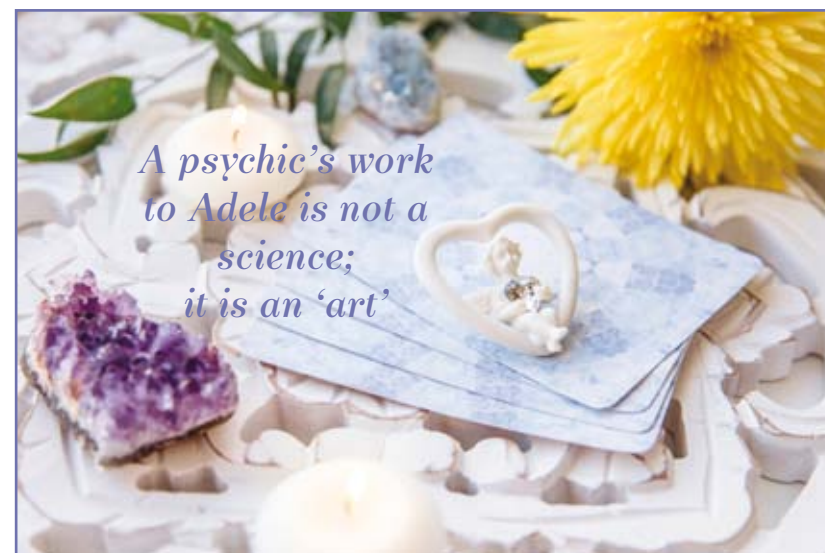

During the reading, Adele slows down and stills her mind. She is making the conditions perfect for her intuition to speak to the client.

No such thing as a typical day

There is no such thing as a typical day for Adele; after all, every day has its unique challenges and opportunities to make a difference. In a real sense, what Adele does every day is a challenge and a blessing.

What Adele does as a psychic reader is not just a to Adele is not a science;

it is an 'art'*

profession or career - it's so much more - it's a calling, and it's a vocation. It's so much more on all levels, and she says that she is so grateful to be rich in spirit in the ways that really matter.

For a mantra to live by, Adele says: At the end of the day - today is what it's all about - yesterday is history, a memory to be cherished, and tomorrow is a mystery and hasn't happened yet - what matters right now is NOW!

Gemini In-depth

Gemini is the third sign of the zodiac and is a mutable air sign. Mutable, meaning adaptable, agreeable and perhaps most significantly - changeable. Geminis have dual personalities; as air signs, they are perpetually in motion. Their ruling planet of Mercury enhances this - meaning Geminis tend to go back and forth, flitting from one thought/thing to another. However, in common with Mercury, they also speak two languages - that of body and soul!

Traits

Geminis may well have grown up being described as 'chatterboxes'; they are the ultimate talkers... Talking of childhood, Geminis seem to always keep an element of innocence and wonder from growing up. This trait is charming to many, but they need to be careful of the Peter Pan effect and others tiring of them not wanting to grow up.

This zodiac sign gets bored - at work, at home and in life in general. So, they tend to build a life that provides multiple stimulations. They likely have more than one job, not a steady career. They have many interests and hobbies and will flit from one to another as the mood strikes. Equally, they have friends for all occasions! They often make great multitaskers - so you can expect that they are making dinner whilst watching TV and texting - all at the same time.

Matters of the Heart

Being in tune with their emotions and emotional resilience, in general, is not a Geminis strong suit. They can be overly sensitive, perhaps picking apart what others have said and done to them. However, they can lack showing sensitivity to others. They are likely to use their best distraction technique - talking; to avoid having to think and say out loud what they are feeling and experiencing.

For this star sign, love needs to be perfect - they will search for a long time, holding on to the belief of a true soul mate. They are flirtatious by nature and desire a partner to be tender and faithful. For Gemini to give serious consideration to settling down, they must, above all else, feel 'understood' and 'seen'.

Frustrations

Geminis tend to change stories; this isn't something they necessarily maliciously intend to do, in the sense of 'lying'; it is just the narrative they create around their lives, dropping inconvenient details here and there.

There is no doubt that Geminis love a bit of gossip; but entrust your secrets to them at your peril - as they are unlikely to hold them!

SUMMER SOLSTICE: KING OF THE WOODS

The month of June, of course, brings Midsummer's Day! In the UK, the Summer Solstice will occur on the 21st of June 2022 at 10.13 am. The 'sol' in Solstice translates to Sun. As we advance towards the solstice, the sun gets progressively higher in the sky until it reaches its peak.

For us in the UK, it ironically marks the beginning of nights drawing in - although thankfully, this happens slowly and so; we can still enjoy warm, light summer evenings in June, July and August; before transitioning to autumn. However, if you live far from the equator, the summer solstice marks the highest amount of day light hours. Some people will visit countries like Finland, Norway and Sweden around the solstice period to experience 24-hour sunlight, sometimes called midnight sun or nighttime daylight!

Celebrate the Summer Solstice

If you are looking for ways to celebrate and enjoy the Summer Solstice period, then you would do well to venture out into the woodlands:

www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/visiting-woods/things-to-do/events/

Celtic Tradition

Under Celtic tradition, the most significant tree in woodlands in the summer phase is the Oak Tree. These broad-leaved trees provide much-needed shade and add an air of mystery to any forest. Druids considered that oak trees were 'King of the Woods'. Roman historians have pontificated that 'Druid' was related to the Greek word for oak (drus).

2000 Years

Nobody would argue the majestic nature of the oak tree, but it is also revered; for its longevity. It is not unusual for an oak tree to survive for 2000 years! Which is arguably even stranger; when you consider that it is also the most likely tree to be struck by lightning!

Gods

An oak tree hit by a lightning storm, can be explained by its tendency to grow above underground-streams. But whatever the reason, this tree has long been; associated with Gods like Thor and Zeus. They, of course had power over lightning and thunder and the Roman God - Mars, for the connection to woodlands.

Seasons

In the lead up to the Summer Solstice, the Oak Tree will be growing in power, crowning in the glory of lush green leaves. The oak tree symbolises everything this season offers: Vitality, Optimism, Fertility, Focus and Regeneration. But eventually, this tree's might will be toppled by the Holly King, who ventures in for the Winter Solstice - but until then - enjoy!

So, what can you expect from this celebratory weekend?

THURSDAY 2nd JUNE

A Bank Holiday was moved, and an extra one added - so that we can celebrate The Platinum Jubilee from the 2nd to the 5th June 2022. As Her Majesty, The Queen celebrates being the first British Monarch to give 70 years of service!

Even if you don't consider yourself a royalist, you probably at least admire the Queen. Especially over the last few years, as she, like us, has endured Covid restrictions, and she succumbed to the virus in 2022. She has also had to go through endless press speculation regarding Prince Andrew and has had to make some tough decisions in the role he now plays. Then, of course, there is the ongoing drama with Prince Harry and his wife, Meghan (The Duke & Duchess of Sussex). But, all of this pales into significance, I am sure, regarding the death of her beloved husband (Prince Philip) in April last year.

Unfortunately, the Queen is now battling advancing age (96) and has some health issues that have made standing for long periods very difficult. So, no doubt the Queen's attendance at the events of the long Jubilee weekend; will be announced daily, as is now customary with her calendar. www.royal.uk/platinum-jubilee-central-weekend

SATURDAY 4th JUNE

The Derby at Epsom Downs:

Her Majesty the Queen, accompanied by Members of the Royal Family, will attend the Derby at Epsom Downs.

Platinum Party at the Palace:

The BBC will stage and broadcast a special live concert from Buckingham Palace that will bring together some of the world's biggest entertainment stars to celebrate the most significant and joyous moments from The Queen's seven-decade reign.

SUNDAY 5th JUNE

The Big Jubilee Lunch:

Every year since the idea began in 2009 The Big Lunch has encouraged communities to celebrate their connections and get to know each other a little bit better, coming together in a spirit of fun and friendship. In 2022 The Big Lunch will bring the Jubilee celebrations into the heart of every community.

The Platinum Jubilee Pageant:

Artistic performers, dancers, musicians, military personnel, key workers and volunteers will unite to tell the story of The Queen's 70-year reign in an awe-inspiring festival of creativity. The London based Pageant will combine pomp and ceremony, street arts, theatre, music, circus, costumes as well as cutting-edge visual technology, drawing on talent from every part of the United Kingdom and across the Commonwealth.
www.platinumpageant.com/

The River of Hope:

Forming an important part of the Platinum Pageant, the 'River of Hope' section will comprise of two hundred silk flags which will process down The Mall, appearing like a moving river. Primary and secondary school children are invited to create a picture of their hopes and aspirations for the planet over the next 70 years. A selection of these creations will be transferred on to silk flags, which will be carried by secondary school pupils in the Pageant.

Spotlight on Amethyst

The Amethyst crystal is highly associated with spiritual vibrations, and its attractive appearance makes it one of the first crystals people purchase for their healing collection.

Using Amethyst is supposed to strengthen your connection with the Divine and promote love. It encourages spiritual exploration and selflessness in actions. It enhances your spiritual gifts and is particularly useful during scrying, third-eye practices, out of body experiences, dream interpretation and meditation.

Colour

If you are considering this crystal for chakra work, you may want to purchase a violet-lavender colour. Whereas, if you want this gem more for intuition, a chevron Amethyst would be more appropriate.

You could also obtain a pineapple Amethyst, so-called for its shape, with small nodules that cover its sides and emerge at termination points. This gem will help you access mythical realms and is brilliant for family healing.

Health

You might be surprised to read that in times gone by - Amethyst was used to create a sobering effect, in essence, stopping someone from becoming too drunk! As such, many people still use it; as a tool to help control addictions and to support healthy choices they have made for their mind, body, spirit & soul.

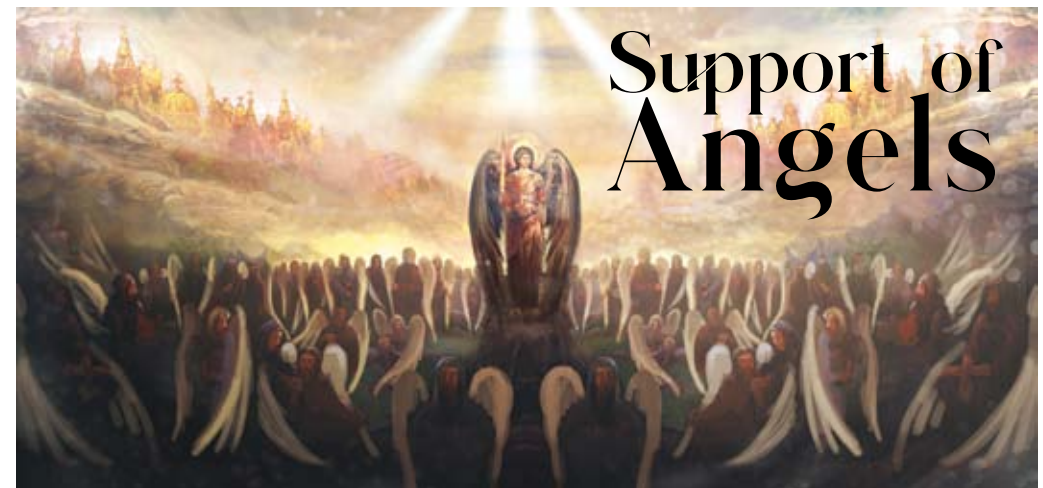

Many will turn to Amethyst for a restful sleep as it can facilitate calming a busy mind. Don't let your thoughts churn; turn to this crystal when you need to focus and feel less scattered about your feelings.

Meditation

Just about any crystal can be used for meditation rituals; but Amethyst has the added benefit of giving you a deeper understanding of any thoughts and feelings you are processing. At the same time, it will help you to turn away more trivial thoughts that don't warrant your time and block your progress.

Grief

Amethyst can support healing when you are grieving. It helps to balance sadness and moves you more to a place of acceptance. If you are experiencing extreme lows and highs around your emotions, then Amethyst can temper things so that your anger, fear and anxiety dissipate.

If you find yourself struggling in life, you may want to call upon an angel to obtain support, guidance and wisdom. Requesting Angelic Healing should be considered an invitation, not a demand. You may find that it helps you to write down what sort of support you need from them. It doesn't need to be formal or fancy - write from the heart.

Below, we explore which angel to turn to, depending on the problem you are experiencing and the type of guidance you need.

Choose Archangel Chamuel for emotional support and matters of the heart

This Archangel rules over the Heart Chakra and can help heal your emotions, creating a sense of inner peace and bringing about balance.

Chamuels colour is all shades of pink, so; you could work with Rose Quartz crystal or light a pink candle to enhance communication.

Archangel Chamuel rules the angels of love, and so if you are searching for a life partner; or are struggling in an existing relationship, then this is the angel for you. Ask for his help when you need to enhance communication with your loved one; and when harmony needs restoring to your heart and love life.

Choose Archangel Jophiel for education and learning

Jophiel is the ultimate illuminator, making her the perfect angel to call upon if you need support with studying; and taking dreaded exams!

If you are hitting a brick wall with revision, remembering details, learning new data, and so on - then Archangel Jophiel will connect you to your higher self. Through Archangel Jophiel, your creativity will be enhanced. Your body and mind will align, and any mental fog will clear.

Why not try using a lemon essential oil when contacting this angel to increase the energising feel and provide mental clarity.

Choose Archangel Michael when you feel in need of protection

I'm sure many of us will have contacted Archangel Michael; in an hour of need. His name translates as 'Who is like God', and he represents the will of God - meaning faith, protection and truth! Call on this angel to feel strong and empowered.

For maximum effect, write your note to Michael in a gold pen and communicate on a Sunday, invoking the impact of the Sun planet.

Choose Archangel Raphael when you have a health-concern

You may turn to Raphael for the healing of others, and you may also seek healing for yourself. This Archangel's name means 'God has healed'. Why not incorporate essential oils as part of an angel ritual. Lavender to invoke regeneration and star anise for ridding negative energies. If you see a white bird or feather - you will know your angelic request was received!

Choose Archangel Zadkiel if your spirituality is waning

Zadkiel is an angel of mercy and guardian of the violet flame, providing both healing and spiritual transformation. Ask Archangel Zadkiel for support when you are struggling with spiritual wisdom; and when you feel like you just can't let go of painful experiences and emotions.

Ash, Cedar and Oak trees are all associated with Zadkiel, so why not take a walk in nature and utilise the time to communicate with this spiritual angel.

NUMEROLOGY: Number Five

Please visit our blog to refer back to all of the Numerology articles so far:

www.psychiclight.com/category/numerology/

Five

Numerologically speaking; those that calculate as a number five, are likely to love travel; or even be connected to travel; perhaps in their jobs.

Five is associated with two astrological signs: Gemini and Virgo. The Virgo trait means that fives need plenty of stimulation and variety in their day-to-day lives. Travel will provide a frequent 'change of scene', which is essential to their wellbeing.

Number Five's, tend to flit from one thing to the next: relationships, hobbies, careers, friends (another Gemini trait!). Eventually, they learn this is not the key to happiness; and stop endless quests; to find something perfect or new!

Heart Number

Finding a kindred spirit feels essential to a number five. They really will want to match; with someone who has similar experiences and goals in life. Intellect and a thirst for knowledge will be non-negotiable in their partners.

Life partners of a number five will have to accept change as part and parcel of life. They will also need to want and like to travel and explore - going to different locations each time.

It can take a five a long time to find the right person to settle down with; it's not that they are not meeting the right person, but more that they move on - imagining that the grass is greener and their soul mate is just around the corner!

Expression Number

A Five is charming, chatty, fun and great to be with, so they have no trouble attracting friends and finding things to do and explore. Zodiac traits come through again, with 5's loving a bit of gossip! However, much of their talk is fascinating as they are very well-read and have a great interest in the world.

Personality Number

One concern for a number five is their endless quest to find the next thing. Five's can lose themselves in tomorrow rather than embracing and enjoying today!

If a five is bored and no event, change or holiday is on the horizon - they are not above cooking up a bit of drama to keep things interesting.

The overriding sentiment and drive for a numerology five is a Fear of Missing Out.

Welcome to Free Spirit's in-depth horoscopes for June 2022

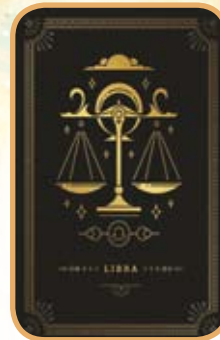

Jupiter, your favourite planet, enters your sign on the 11th, a positive and joyful transit, and he stays there all month. What's more, Ruler Mars is in your sign and remains there all month. They bless you with an abundance of health/energy which boosts self-esteem and self-confidence. These benign travellers show you winning lucky breaks. Venus (finances) remains in your money sky until the 23rd, showing prosperity. Sounds like: "June is Bustin' Out All Over" for you!

Your loyal ruler Venus waves a magic wand this month and showers you with abundance, plus, you're still in a yearly financial peak until the 21st. Money planet Mercury moves forward from the 3rd, bringing fiscal clarity. Mercury (money) in your own sign until the 14th; is a classic signal for prosperity. There's a bonus from Venus, when she enters your money sky on the 23rd and again when she travels with Uranus on the 10th & 11th – a rather sudden but superb career opportunity. Enjoy!

Your personal power and independence are still going strong, and when you direct this power wisely, the sky's the limit. It's a time for enjoying the pleasures of the senses and pampering the body. Self-esteem and confidence are good, especially from the 14th onwards when lively Mercury enters your sign. So, make those changes that need to be made. Money is King just now, especially when the Sun enters your money sky on the 21st, and you begin an annual money peak.

No more waiting in the wings for Libra; your 7th love sky is still very healthy this month. Jupiter is there along with Mars, who incidentally is in his own sign and house and is more powerful on your behalf. Your social graces are unusually strong; singles are in a marriage frame of mind, and you're in the mood for love. The Cosmic power is in your benign 9th spiritual sky until the 21st. ESP is strong. The Sun enters your career sky on the 21st, and you begin a yearly career peak.

Ruler Mars and Jupiter are both travelling together; in your health/work sky this month, which is a double positive. It shows best-case conditions for health matters, and job seekers have excellent prospects too. Your favourite 8th makeover sky is strong; now until the 21st, so you'll be busy with health/wellbeing regimes. On the 21st, your 9th sacred sky is powerful – your interest in theology will increase. Perhaps a visit to a spiritual guru is more valuable than a night out on the town?

Centaurians can look forward to a wonderful month ahead as your 7th sky of love/social pursuits are chock-full of planets. Here we have a clear mission. Love/social activities, and the needs of others, take priority over your own needs! Personal skills/initiative are not as important as social skills. Consensus and cooperation are the keys, plus you're still in a yearly love/social peak. Finances are amazing now, Saturn (money) receives great aspects until the 21st and Jupiter and Mars gift you happiness!

Often worldly goals and spiritual aspirations are at odds with each other. This month one of your tasks is to balance your career and the spiritual. Your career is very successful just now, and June is a very spiritual month which can pose some challenges. However, one can be spiritual and still have worldly success. The Sun, your money planet, remains in your spiritual 12th sky until the 21st; he then crosses your Ascendant and enters your own sign which brings prosperity.

Leo – you'll be feeling very pleased with yourself this month as most of your short-term career goals have been achieved. You can now enjoy the fruits of your labour, sharing with friends who complement your new status. Jupiter continues his solstice in your 9th sky until the 11th – good vibrations! The cosmic power is in your 11th friend's sky, and a secret wish comes true. Mercury enters the 10th career sky until the 14th, then moves to Gemini, his own sign – it's raining Money!

Virgos are feeling on top of the world. Your career sky is even stronger than last month, plus you're still amid a yearly career peak. Mercury moves forward on the 4th and enters your career sky on the 14th. Career-wise, you seem above everyone else, and you're calling the shots. Jupiter will focus on your 8th makeover sky activities. It's time to become the person you aspire to be! On the 21st, the Sun enters your 11th friend's sky – your social calendar is full. Bliss!

Capricorns gift in June – lucky Jupiter and family planet Mars are both in your 4th home/family sky, so there is joy and prosperity in your family. Your 6th health/work sky is powerful, until the 21st and Mercury (health) goes forward on the 3rd. Perhaps it's time for those health checks you've been putting off? After the 21st, rest more and get plenty of fresh air. On the 21st, the Sun enters your love/social sky, and you begin a personal pleasure peak. You surely have that loving feeling!

Water-bearers are still in the midst of an annual pleasure period – it's a time to enjoy life and air; and do fun things together! This goes on until the 21st; enjoyment will also help the love life. The romantic people in your life are looking for fun – perhaps you've been too serious of late? The Sun moves into your 6th health/work sky after the 21st, when your love outlook seems to change. Emotional intimacy becomes more important, and you're attracted to therapists and health experts.

Your 4th home/family sky becomes even more powerful this month and is the main focal point next to your emotional wellbeing. More harmony is needed between your sensitive/practical nature while laying the groundwork for career success. Finances are amazing this month, with two benign planets in your chart. Jupiter (abundance) and Mars, your money planet, are in your 2nd finance sky all month. The Summer winds of Heaven make your heart sing!
