Editor's letter

 I thought I would use the Editors Letter this month to mention Remembrance Day.

The world has seen turbulent times of late, the war in Ukraine, the passing of the Queen, political turmoil, and tough economic times. While Remembrance Day is a solemn occasion, the poppy and the event are also a reminder of hope, particularly for a peaceful future.

Remembrance Sunday falls on the 13th of November. The National Service at the Cenotaph was an event the Queen never wanted to miss, so no doubt it will feel a little different this year.

The British Legion says the service "provides the nation with a physical reminder of all those who have served and sacrificed, with British and Commonwealth soldiers, sailors, airmen and women represented, together with members of the emergency services and civilians, ensuring that no-one is forgotten."

The Exhortation:
*They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
We will remember them.*

Wear your poppy with pride,

Regards Charlotte

Scorpio In-depth

Unlike other star signs, most people know by the name that Scorpio's icon is the scorpion, and the implication is 'sting in the tail'. Scorpio is the eighth sign of the zodiac.

The Ruling planets are Mars and Pluto, making Scorpios passionate, driven and with hidden depths! Scorpios are a fixed water sign, and the phrase 'still waters run deep', is perfect for summing them up.

Traits

It is not easy to get to know a Scorpio, they tend to keep an air of secrecy around them, and they like it that way! Scorpios, on the other hand; are very good at reading people and understanding personalities and relationship dynamics.

Scorpios; like to gather information and knowledge about others and situations that could be useful to them at a later date. They have a strong desire for power and will manipulate situations and people if it furthers their cause.

There is one area that Scorpios are conflicted; they are both risk takers and will break rules to go through boundaries others don't wish to push. However, they are also change-resistant! They also find it difficult to say no, which is unusual for a dynamic sign, even when the outcome would be better for them - this is an example of when the 'sting in the tail' actually hurts them rather than others.

Love

The Scorpio sign loves nothing better than to analyse a person or situation, inside out and upside down. However, their emotions run deep, so much so that they often can't fathom their own thoughts and feelings, especially in matters of the heart.

Scorpios do not play the field; they focus their intense passion on one person. Love is often at the centre of this sign's ambitions and inspirations.

Those that fall for a Scorpio may describe them as possessive, dominant and jealous - but often they attract their partners through their sheer magnetism. These possible negatives are countered by their actions once they are committed. For example, they become deeply attached and loyal to their partners. They are faithful, although not overly demonstrative in public. Their feelings are true, and a tender partnership can ensue.

Weaknesses

It is easy for a Scorpio to become obsessed either with a task, project or person. They don't always understand that not everyone does well with such a dominant personality in their lives, whether that is at work or in their love life. They do not like being analysed, even though it is their favourite pastime. They do not respond well to a lot of personal questions. They are insecure when they are with someone who seemingly knows more than them!

Character

Scorpios; are considered the most sexual and intense of the zodiac - tangle with them if you dare!

Enhancing Psychic Abilities through Meditation

Meditation can make a huge difference in your life, especially when developing your psychic abilities. Like any other skill, psychic abilities can be honed and enhanced, meditating regularly; is one of the top tips we can share with you.

Meditation is a practice of concentrated focus to achieve a higher state of awareness, reduce stress, promote relaxation, and enhance personal and spiritual growth. Some describe meditation as having a conversation within yourself, as it helps you discover more about yourself and who you are. It may seem daunting if you have never tried it before, but it is a mental discipline that aims to help you go into a deeper state of relaxation or awareness.

Many psychic powers can be enhanced and developed using meditation, but common ones include psychic visions (clairvoyance), ESP, or increasing intuition. Enriching your psychic ability with meditation is not difficult or complicated; however, keep-in-mind that meditation is a way of life and the process requires regular practice and a lot of discipline.

There is no right or wrong way to practise meditation, and there are hundreds of different approaches. It is a unique and personal experience so take the time to find a technique that works for you.

Here are some tips to help you tap into your psychic abilities through meditation:

Practise Daily

Preferable times to meditate are early morning before the day tires your body out or in the evening after you have spent time winding down and relaxing. 5-15 minutes a day is perfect.

Find a Peaceful Environment

Turn off distractions, whether it's the TV set, your computer or your mobile phone. Some people choose to include relaxing music to help concentration.

Relax, Breathe and Pay Attention

Relaxing with an open mind enhances your consciousness; and increases psychic awareness, so try and relax everything, even down to the small muscles in your face. Let your attention rest on your flow of breath, and silence your mind. The goal is to allow your minds 'chatter' to slowly fade away until you find an anchor to settle your mind.

Joining the subconscious spiritual mind with the conscious mind strengthens the connection to yourself and your spiritual energy. We are constantly on the move, and meditation allows us to take a step back from our busy lives and give ourselves space to grow.

The most important thing to remember is to make meditation a daily activity. The more consistent you are, the more likely you'll be to succeed in developing your psychic abilities. After a while, you will notice your spiritual energy more and more, and strengthening this connection through meditation will only increase your mystical knowledge and power.

Bryony

PIN: 2727

Bryony is an incredibly insightful reader who has been intuitive all her life. She has never been trained or taught her skills; they are a natural intellectual gift. Bryony has a real connection to her spirit guides. She has many invaluable years of experience as a professional medium focussing on many of life's key areas.

Favourite topics for Bryony are emotional journeys, major life decisions and supporting folks to find a path through relationship difficulties. She tunes in to your earth energy and, alongside her guides, can bring balance to your life; with peace and joy.

A very spiritual reader, Bryony works with her guide to tune into your energies and auras to assist you in your journey. She will look at your relationship and see why you are not connecting. Bryony can look at someone you want to be close to and see if there is a reason they are not coming forward. If you feel your career has stalled, she will show you what blocks are in your path. Or maybe you feel like you are not moving forward in life but cannot see why; Bryony will show you likely outcomes for changes you make from her vision and wisdom.

For over 30+ years, Bryony was a trouble-shooter in business and the corporate world, so she is well placed to give spiritual counsel in this area. If she sees your life pathway is blocked, she will tune into the environment of what is going on around you and show you the way forward.

As a psychic medium, Bryony is always honest about what she sees; she is a very creative and caring person; who has great empathy toward people and animals. She believes in everything natural and holistic and cannot resist beagle dogs with their cute pendant ears and cheeky personalities. Bryony's philosophy is that love is all around - you just have to embrace it!

Testimonial:

Wow! First time caller and was drawn to Bryony straight away, she completely put me at ease (I was nervous), she sorted so many issues I had going on with clear, concise clarification in the most understanding way. Looking forward to talking to her again, thank you Bryony x.

Angel Ritual

Support to let go of the past

Many of us will hold on to negative elements of the past and; this is not always a bad thing. The past or things we may consider past mistakes or bad decisions - remind us to make better and different choices in the future.

Sometimes holding on to the past too tightly; can very much keep us stuck in the here and now! If we only remember the difficult times and stressful events then; our capacity for finding future happiness can be severely restricted.

Here are some of the things people most typically struggle to let go of:

- Unrequited love.
- Feeling like you let 'the one' go.
- A failed relationship or marriage.
- Unfilled dreams.
- Not making the most of your potential or achieving your ambitions.
- Something that somebody said to you or did to you.
- Letting a possession go; or losing something that had great sentimental value.
- The death of a loved one.
- Not being able to say goodbye to someone.
- The passing of a pet.

*This list is by no means exhaustive, and you may have something different from your past that you struggle to move on from.

When we have suffered personal loss, it can be easy to over-romanticise the past and to see it differently from actual events; this can make your current life situation pale in comparison.

Try this Angelic Ritual to help you move forward from past hurts and welcome in the future.

- You can either imagine a circle or create an actual circle that you can sit in. You might line the space with battery tea lights or your favourite crystals.

- Then imagine/create four compass points. Each one will represent an Archangel:

East - Archangel Raphael (before you).

West - Archangel Gabriel (behind you).

South - Archangel Michael (to your right).

North - Archangel Uriel (to your left).

- Call each of the Archangels into your circle; you may find it helpful to visualise a green light/gold aura for Raphael. An orange light and white aura for Gabriel. A yellow light and blue aura for Michael and a red light and violet aura for Uriel. Only move on to another Angel when you feel you have connected to the current angel and have brought them into your innercircle.

- Now, in your mind's eye, see the Star of David - two interlocking triangles that represent the Heart Chakra and the meaning of balance.

- Ask each of the Angels for support and guidance in letting go of your past worries. Also, focus on asking them for help with stepping into the now and creating a bright future where you are 'present'.

- Thank the Angels for coming forward and for providing wisdom, and then let their energies dissolve.

If you watch the trailer for: She Said, you will see straight away; how relentless the journalists had to be in pursuing the story. Carey Mulligan (our cover star) plays the role of Megan Twohey; Zoe Kazan (opposite) joins as Jodi Kantor - both are depicting the New York Times reporters famous for breaking the story of a generation.

<https://www.shesaidmovie.com/>

The Plot

The story I am referring to; is that of sexual assault in Hollywood, and specifically the pursuit of Harvey Weinstein.

The film is based on the book that the two journalists published (She Said: Breaking the Sexual Harassment Story That Helped Ignite A Movement). Of course, the book; and now this film; are based on real-life events. It is safe to say that the story changed American culture forever and helped launch the #MeToo movement. The film demonstrates how devastating the ordeal was for all of the victims, but also what the writers had to sacrifice and risk to get to the truth.

One interviewee said, "People have tried to write this story before – he kills it every time. He played people; he was a master manipulator". The editor of the two journalists soon got a feel for the lengths those involved would go to cover things up: "You have to imagine that every call you make is being recorded and you're being followed."

Harvey Weinstein

In October 2017, Kantor and Twohey reported many assaults and sexual harassment against women; perpetrated by Hollywood mogul - Harvey Weinstein. The article explored not only; the non-consensual sexual acts; but also the way money was used to cover things up.

Once the story broke, over 80 women came forward - many of them famous Hollywood actresses. Eventually, Weinstein was fired from the board of his own company; and was found guilty in a court of rape - he was sentenced to 23 years in prison.

Cast

She Said has already been tipped for award nominations, and Carey Mulligan is a two-time Academy Award nominee. You might remember her from Promising Young Woman and An Education. You may be familiar with Zoe from The Plot Against America and The Big Sick.

The film co-stars Patricia Clarkson (Shutter Island), Andre Braugher (Thief), Jennifer Ehle (Pride and Prejudice) and Samantha Morton (Minority Report).

The producers (Dede Gardner and Jeremy Kleiner) for Plan B Entertainment are equally credentialled and Academy Award-winning for 12 Years a Slave, Selma and The Big Short, to name a few. She Said is directed by Emmy winner - Maria Schrader.

Release Date

In the UK, She Said is released in cinemas on the 25th of November, one week later than the US showing. She Said is also featured in various film festivals around the globe during October.

PALMISTRY THE HEART LINE

For many people, their first experience; of a psychic reading is through having their palm read. Equally, many psychics start here - often with this art form passed down from generation to generation.

What intrigues people the most about palm readings is what a reader can tell them about their Heart Line and their romantic life.

So, what does the Heart Line tell us?

- First and foremost, it can determine how well a person connects with their own emotions.
- It looks at how the person expresses their emotions to others.
- The line can give clues; as to whether their love life will be happy and plain sailing or rocky and unhappy.

Where to Start?

The reader will begin by looking at the Heart Line and determining the quality of the line, the shape, breaks in the line, and where the line ends. These things combined will give the reader a good idea of the person's emotional energy.

Four Possible Endings

Although the Heart Line begins in the same place for everyone (on the outer edge of the hand), it can end in four different locations, and each means something different:

- If it ends under the middle finger (Saturn) - this is the shortest type of Heart Line. The person likely takes their emotions seriously, but their range of emotions and ability to show those emotions to others may be limited.
- Ending in between the Saturn & Jupiter Mounts; then this querent will feel their emotions deeply, and they are passionate people. They are loyal and have a healthy dose of common sense.
- Finishing in the midpoint of the first finger (Jupiter); then they likely have a idealistic romanticised view of love - which may lead to disappointment. However, they are emotionally resilient.
- Concluding at the other side of the palm creates the longest Heart Line. This person will feel the gauntlet of emotions. Others might accuse them of being immature in matters of the heart, possibly due to their jealous and demanding tendencies.

Wavy or Level?

The Heart Line itself may be straight, meaning the querent may struggle to tell others how they feel and; they may appear insensitive. The line is often curved; these people have friendly dispositions, and others may describe them as warm. For others, the line will have a deep curve - and they would be; thought of as sensitive and easily hurt emotionally.

Palm Positioning

Lastly, a reader considers where the Heart Line is positioned on the palm:

- If the line is close to the finger base, then; the person tends to be outgoing and sociable. Others are drawn to them, and they are entertaining. However, they often have an uncompromising idea of what a relationship should look like.
- The line sometimes appears between the head line and the base of the fingers. This person is level-headed, and can temper their emotions and communicate well with others.
- Lastly, the position of the line could be close to the head line. In this case, whilst the person may feel their feelings strongly - they will likely struggle to express them to others.

NUMEROLOGY: Number Eleven

If you want to read our introduction to Numerology (including how to calculate your number), and want to review the numbers one to nine, then please visit our blog:

www.psychiclight.com/category/numerology/

Don't forget there is no number ten, so today, we look at Master Number 11, and we round out the series in December with Master Number 22.

Eleven

Numerology Eleven; is associated with psychic abilities and character strength and is aligned with the star sign Aquarius and the planet Uranus. This number is considered extremely powerful and can inspire others!

You likely know a few elevens; you may describe them as leaders, not followers. They are determined characters and often succeed in whatever they set their sights on. They get there by hard work and sheer determination; they are prepared to go the extra mile to reach their goals. Elevens are their own worst critic; an inner voice rarely lets them back down from an aspiration. This can mean that romantic relationships can get neglected.

Heart Number

Those that calculate as elevens have big hearts, not necessarily just in the romantic department; this means they are driven to help others and have a deep desire to change the world for the better.

Life can sometimes be hard for elevens and those around them - as they pursue their somewhat idealistic missions. Their single-tracked visions can be difficult for others to understand, especially when they pursue tasks at the risk of everything else.

Romantic partners should be prepared to feel second best at times, as elevens will not always have the time or energy to devote to them as they use their self-confidence and driving spirit to achieve their ambitions.

Expression Number

Often, number elevens have a spiritual belief system; and this sustains them when life is tough. They also tend to build strong networks of family, colleagues, friends and romantic partners who are ready to champion them on their way.

By and large, a numerology eleven will need a creative outlet - some may combine this with work. Others are more likely to pursue something as a hobby that they keep just for fun. They should be careful that these pursuits do not spiral into fantasy dreams.

Personality Number

Others might describe Numerology elevens as charming and charismatic; they communicate well and easily. They are also very good at passing on knowledge to others and often have a training/teaching role in those they mentor.

It can be very inspiring to be around those that calculate as an eleven; their drive, success, thoughts and ideas are contagious.

Michaela
PIN: 3232

I was 21 years old, and at my lowest, all hope seemed gone when I reached out to Spirit and received my first spiritual experience, and this brought an awakening to spiritual things.

Spiritual experiences began happening more and more frequently; and came powerfully during seven years when I had seven bereavements, one followed by another, and my partner left me without explanation; and without money, a job or a home. These experiences gave me insight, strength and caring for others who find themselves in difficulty, and they let me turn negatives into positives.

Being a private person, however, I didn't ask anyone about the spiritual experience until I met a Mystic who gave me explanations. She became my mentor for five years, and I learnt a great deal from her.

One day I went to a Tarot reading with my friend and was told; that I would be able to do readings for others. Shortly after, I needed a part-time job while at college; I walked into the job centre and the first notice I spotted for a job was for a Tarot Reader! I applied immediately for it. I was with that company for seven years; before joining Psychic Light.

Over the last 12 years, I have given readings to men and women of various backgrounds, including other psychics and mediums; and my work allows people to see their present and future challenges and achievements. I get many people asking about new relationships and relationship issues, but whatever; the enquiry is about, whether family, work, prosperity or a new adventure, I always ask for guidance from angels, particularly Archangel Michael.

Testimonial:

Michaela said to me that my relationship was just going through a sticky patch, so I stayed with my husband and she was right. Then she said that I would lose my job very soon but that I shouldn't worry as another job was just around the corner, I said 'no way', the next week I was told that I was going to be made redundant and 2 weeks later I was offered another better job!

Amber has been popular for a long time, especially for jewellery pieces. Larger gems are often set into necklaces or chunky bracelets, giving wearers the perfect opportunity to have the stone close to them. What you may not realise is that Amber isn't a crystal. Instead, it is a resin from a tree that has solidified and then become fossilised. However, that does not lessen its usefulness as a gem in your healing crystal collection.

Spotlight on Amber

Grounding Energy

As you might expect from something that derives from nature, Amber has strong Earth connections and is considered very grounding. Amber is also used for drawing out disease, healing, cleansing and clearing chakras.

Amber can work by absorbing negative energies and pain, that is coursing through the body, which in turn provides the body time to settle, restore and re-balance itself.

Spiritual

From a spiritual perspective, those that turn to Amber should feel self-sacrificing and philanthropic - ready to help others. This stone also brings about a sense of understanding and wisdom.

Having Amber around your home can encourage trust to build with the loved ones who reside there. Amber can also create a sense of peace and serenity.

Chakras

If you want to use Amber for grounding purposes, then stimulating the navel chakra should help. If you are wearing a piece of Amber for a long period, then on the throat or wrist is best.

This bright gem has sunny energy; use it whenever you are feeling depressed or in times of high stress. Using this stone regularly should promote patience, better decision-making, and an ability to take thoughts through to actions.

Appearance

Amber should be a golden brown to yellow. If you see green gems, then they have been artificially altered. They are not a rare gem and can be found in many countries, including Britain.

Whilst it is not everyone's cup of tea, some gems include an insect or vegetation trapped inside the resin and are highly prized! But, as always with collecting crystals - purchase what you are drawn to the most.

Did you know that up to 1959, it was illegal; to NOT; celebrate Bonfire Night? However, the event was celebrated indoors.

The above dictate was only allowed after World War I and WW II, as in those periods, no one was allowed to set off fireworks; for fear of alerting the enemy to where people were. This legislation, was cemented with The Defence of the Realm Act in parliament in 1914.

Now, on with the quiz...

1. What temperature can a sparkler reach?
2. Why do you see the fireworks before you hear the bang?
3. What speed can a firework rocket reach?
4. Chinese scientists accidentally invented gunpowder by mixing chemicals; and this turned into the first fireworks. But what country did the inventors come from; that made a casing allowing fireworks to go into the air?
5. Not everyone is crazy about fireworks. What is the name for those that have a fear of the loud sound they make?
6. What year did the first fireworks display take place in England?
7. The above-mentioned display was for a wedding - who got married?
8. What was Guy Fawkes first name?
9. The Gunpowder Plot was an attempt to kill a King - which one?
10. What is the 'technical' name for fireworks - hint, it begins with a P?
11. What is the cake associated with bonfire night, made with black treacle and oatmeal - it also begins with a 'P'?
12. What was the Gunpowder Plot, originally known as?

For the answers, either stand on your head or rotate the magazine upside down!

Astrology

With our expert:

Carol Day

Welcome to Free Spirit's in-depth horoscopes for November 2022

Aries, you're blessed with amazing cosmic energy this month. Jupiter (spiritual) moved out of your sign and back into mystical Pisces on the 29th of October. So, once again, your spiritual practice is your main priority. On the 8th, you have a Lunar Eclipse in your money sky, which impacts three other planets. Mercury (health/work), Venus (love/money) and Uranus (mystical encounters of the 3rd kind). You can look forward to spiritual prizes. Enjoy!

There's a powerful Blood Moon, Lunar Eclipse coming up; on the 8th of November, which occurs in your own Venus sign. This strong eclipse compels you to redefine yourself and your image - a new aura; to compliment a new look! It also impacts on money planet Mercury, so there are fiscal changes; and job changes with Uranus (career planet). So, reduce schedules during the eclipse period. After the 22nd, you receive a cosmic energy boost.

A few shake-ups are going on in your 12th sky of spirituality when a powerful Lunar Eclipse on the 8th impacts three important planets: Mercury, Uranus and Venus. The eclipse occurs in your 12th sky of spirituality, so there are changes in your sacred teachings/tutors - change often means progress. The Moon is your money planet, so there are likely to be fiscal shake-ups and changes. The Sun enters your 7th sky on the 22nd, and you begin a yearly love/social high.

Lucky Libra, you're still amid a yearly financial peak until the 22nd, so November is still prosperous. However, the main headline now is a Lunar Eclipse which occurs in your 8th transition sky and brings focus to lifestyle questions. As the Moon is your career planet, you can expect re-thinks in your industry and changes to your career path. Mercury brings spiritual shake-ups, and beliefs get tested. Choices made are good, healthy, prosperous and wise.

Until the 22nd, you're still amid a personal pleasure period. So, it's a great time to pamper your body - enjoy the pleasures of the senses! After the 22nd, the Sun enters your money sky, and you begin a yearly financial peak. Plus, money planet Jupiter moves forward on the 23rd, and prosperity follows. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your 7th love sky and affects Venus/Mercury/Uranus. The planets are kind, and you get the best-case outcomes to any challenges.

Like the rest of the world, our Centaur's lifestyle is on the move, what was once blocked is now being freed. This is mainly due to a powerful Lunar Eclipse on the 8th, which seems to blast away barriers. The eclipse occurs in your 6th sky of health/work ruled by Venus, so health regimes and job changes are likely. It also affects Mercury, your love/career planet. Good news, the Sun enters your 1st sky on the 22nd, and you begin a yearly pleasure peak.

Moon-folk experience a powerful Lunar Eclipse on the 8th, which also has an impact on three key planets: Mercury, Uranus and Venus. The Moon, your ruler, brings challenges to every lunar eclipse. This time you'll be compelled to redefine your image and self-concept. A reduced schedule around this period is a must. Despite this, you can look forward to a happy month. You're still in a yearly pleasure peak until the 22nd, and a family party is on the books - enjoy!

Many Leos are taking a more laid back approach to life this month to lessen the effects of the Lunar Eclipse on the 8th. This eclipse occurs in your 10th career sky and affects Venus making it more powerful. So, meditate or read a book; just take it easy. Venus will keep tabs on career changes, shake-ups at work and dramas in the lives of bosses. The Moon, your spiritual planet, brings changes to teachings but mostly to your thinking.

High-flying Virgo's will be getting to grips with a powerful Lunar Eclipse on the 8th of November, so downplay your work schedule during that time. This eclipse occurs in your 9th sky of religion/education; thus, your theological beliefs are tested; and there are changes for college level students. Ruler Mercury brings career changes and also compels you to redefine yourself. So, it's Lights-Camera-Action. Could you be a Virgo Superstar?

Good news for Capricorns; your health and energy are excellent this month, which is good as you'll be facing a powerful Lunar Eclipse on the 8th. This eclipse occurs in your 5th sky of fun/children and creativity. It also impacts three other planets in your chart - Venus, Mercury and Uranus, so schedule meetings around the eclipse period. Venus shows career changes, Uranus suggests fiscal shake-ups, and Mercury shines his light on your spiritual sky. Heavenly!

Water-bearers, applause is in order, you've reached the pinnacle of your career year, and you're amid a yearly career peak until the 22nd. We also have a powerful Lunar Eclipse on the 8th, which has a strong effect on you - it blasts through career obstacles. Try to reduce your work schedule and take it easy around that time. This eclipse occurs in your 4th sky of home/family; wear your arbitrators' hat; your spiritual practice will help you deal with this.

Cosmic signs indicate that things are moving forward for you this month. This is despite a total Lunar Eclipse on the 8th; that impacts several planets, including Mercury (love) and Uranus (spiritual). This eclipse occurs in your 3rd interaction sky, so you'll be busy upgrading your intellectual interests. You also take sibling figures under your wing; who feel the need to redefine themselves. For you, Uranus signals a spiritual reset and perhaps a new mystic Guru is on the horizon!
